

My husband loves the variety available to him on XM radio. He travels extensively and this provides him a way have something reliable to listen to no matter where he goes. We choose to pay for this service and therefore should have the choice to get traffic, new, weather, and any other service that are helpful to us as we travel.